State of CROP

Presented by Robert Warwick
Acting Executive Director of CROP

August 15, 2017
Agenda

- Introduction
- Communications
- Fundraising
- Material Resources
- Financial State of CROP
- Partnership
- Why it all matters: CWS program highlights
Communications

How we’re connecting you to the work you make possible

WALK MATERIALS

SOCIAL MEDIA
Communications

Staying connected to strategic partners and donors
Fundraising

Connecting you to the programs you make possible
Financial State of CROP

- Ensuring timely payments to partners
- Commitment to maintaining a reserve
- Key figures from the past year:
  - 107,928 CROP Hunger Walkers
  - 906 CROP Hunger Walks
  - Nearly $9,200,000 raised
  - 1,572 agencies supported
Partnerships
Our unique role in the NGO & ecumenical world

Donor & Volunteer Partners:
- CROP Hunger Walks
- Congregations
- Individuals

Program Partners:
- Local organizations implementing CWS programs
- Other organizations funding programs

Member Partners:
- 37 Denominations
- Disaster & Humanitarian Assistance Advisory Committee

Other Partners:
- United States government
- Local government
- Universities
- ACT Alliance
- InterAction
Myanmar

Improving family nutrition & access to clean, safe water
CWS programs in Myanmar reached 18,867 people last year.

About 7,000 were in Ngaputaw Township.

Nearly 12,000 were in the Ayeyarwady River delta.

Myanmar

Improving family nutrition & access to clean, safe water
Indonesia

Strengthening nutrition, food security, water and sanitation
Indonesia

Strengthening nutrition, food security, water and sanitation

SOLIDARITAS in South Sulawesi

PURE+ in Jakarta

Timor Zero Hunger in West Timor

CWS programs in Indonesia reached 17,000+ people last year.
Disaster Risk Reduction

Preparing communities to better weather future storms
Disaster Risk Reduction
Preparing communities to better weather future storms

- Early warning systems
- Search and rescue
- Evacuation routes
- Community mapping
- Basic first aid
- Preparing supplies
At any point, about 50 communities in Bolivia, Paraguay and Argentina are participating in CWS programs.
Guatemala

Food security through model farms, greenhouses & info sharing
Guatemala

Food security through model farms, greenhouses & info sharing

CWS works with 700 members of local indigenous organizations.
Roma Program
Safe spaces for vulnerable children
Of the 277 participating in CWS-supported drop-in shelters this year, 204 have either stopped working on the street or spend significantly less time doing so. ALL are enrolled in school.
Material Goods
Shipping supplies to families who need them
Material Goods

Since the start of the Syrian conflict in 2011, CWS has shipped 168,000 Kits and Blankets – about $2.3 million worth – to our partner IOCC for distribution in Syria.
THANK YOU!
THANK YOU!
Questions?