Around the block. Around the world.

What is the CROP Hunger Walk?

CROP Hunger Walks are community-led interfaith events that raise funds to end hunger locally AND around the world. Everyone is welcome to join!

Your participation impacts individuals and families in more than 35 countries. In many developing nations, people could walk up to six miles a day to get food and water. One in nine people worldwide lack access to clean water and a healthy diet. We walk to show solidarity and to bring awareness while raising funds for permanent change.

From its birth in 1969, CWS-sponsored CROP Hunger Walks have grown to include walkers of all ages, faiths and backgrounds in more than 500 communities throughout the U.S.

The CROP Hunger Walk is the only nationwide Walk that addresses hunger both locally and globally.

"Rockford's CROP Hunger Walk began in 1984 as local congregations acknowledged the growing need for help in our city and around the world. Although we have raised over one million dollars hunger continues to grow. And so we continue to walk."

- REV. DAVID JONES, COORDINATOR, ROCKFORD AREA (IL) CROP HUNGER WALK

"The CROP Walk has breathed new life and energy into our community, as believers join hands and feet to make a difference in our community. I am amazed by the joy neighbors experience simply by walking together to feed the hungry."

- ULLI KLEMM, COORDINATOR, MECHANICSBURG/WEST SHORE (PA) CROP HUNGER WALK

"As teachers, we walk in CROP Hunger Walks for children everywhere to have food to eat, clean water to drink, a safe environment to live and learn, and a promise of a brighter future."

- GLORIA JONES, TEAM CAPTAIN OF TEAM KAPPA - TEACHERS STEPPING UP TO FIGHT HUNGER, CHARLOTTE (NC) CROP HUNGER WALK
